Advocacy Works - Some real stories

Kareen gets a widows Pension

Kareen moved to the city from her village as a young married woman. She, her husband and 4 children lived in a makeshift 'jhuggi' (hut) in an unauthorised colony in the city's outskirts. In 2008, Kareen's 11 month old baby girl died - probably to diarrhoea. A couple of months later Kareen lost her husband. This time it was probably to TB. Kareen (pictured right) was now left with 3 children, no income, living in a tiny hut and incredibly vulnerable.

The state government has a widows pension of Rs1,000 a month but Kareen wasn't getting it. Some simple enquiries found that it was the Department of Social Welfare that administers pensions (see page 12 of this manual). The department said that Kareen wasn't eligible for a pension because she didn't have a bank account. Kareen had never had a bank account, so some community worker friends went to the local bank to find out about getting one. “No,” the manager informed them, “we need some identity documentation to open an account” (see page 55 of this manual). Kareen had no such documentation, so next stop was the Electoral Commission. The community workers asked the Commission to issue an Electoral Identity Card (I Card) for Kareen. After several days the officials visited her at her hut. They shook their heads and said; “No, sorry, because she lives in a slum hut, we won't give her an I card.” They protested & cited the rule that all Indian residents are eligible for Election Identity Cards whether they live in a palace or a slum hut (see page 50 of this Manual). After a little more hand wringing, they finally agreed.

A week or so later, armed with the Election Identity Card, the community workers went back to the bank, which thankfully opened the account. Next they went back to Social Welfare Department, confident they'd succeed. “No!” came the answer. “Even with the Bank account, she still needs some official government document proving she's been resident in here for 5 years!” Exasperated, they wrote a letter of appeal to the head of the Social Welfare Department (see guidelines for letters on page 60), which finally acceded to their request. So after 6 months of doing battle with the bureaucracy, Kareen finally got her pension, back-paid for 5 months, so now she had Rs5,000 in her own bank account! She beamed ! It wasn't much, but the regular amount might be enough for Kareen and her children to survive.

Women get MGNREGA jobs

The women in Jagir village didn't know whether women were eligible to work under the MGREGA scheme or not (see page 11 of this manual). Their husbands had a 'Job Card' under the scheme, but they didn't know if they were eligible. A local NGO's project staff informed them that indeed they, as women, were entitled to work in the scheme. Knowing this, the women went to the Gram Pradhan to ask for work. They eventually got manual work (and income) in road construction under MGNREGA.

Guddan gets a Gas Connection

Guddan had been trying for two years to get a 'pakka' (legal) gas connection. The staff at the gas office always gave some excuse for not being 'able' to give her the connection. Then Guddan attended an advocacy workshop during which she learned about her rights to a gas connection (page 35 of this manual) and ways to advocate should the application be stalled - especially on using the Right To Information Act. Having that teaching in her mind Guddan went back to the gas office. Again the officer gave some excuses, but this time Guddan threatened to complain to his superior officer in the state capital, if she didn't get her connection quickly. The officer was shocked. That simple threat of action was enough and Guddan got her gas connection within weeks!
Introduction

1. About this Manual

Bihar has a surprising number of government services available to its residents. Many of those services should, by rights, be available to the poor residents of villages & urban slums. Unfortunately however, many poor residents are not able to avail of these services due either to the corruption of some officials, or ignorance, or lack of confidence in residents themselves.

Often when NGO's find these government services not functioning, they attempt to provide those services themselves, opening schools, clinics, vocational training programmes etc. Such service provision has the advantage that it may endear the NGO to people and may see results quite quickly. However, the NGO can't provide these services forever. Sooner or later, they will need to help residents to access government services which will last in the long run.

The information in this manual is only a part of a bigger strategy to empower Bihar's poor residents. Empowerment involves not only giving the poor the knowledge of services available (pages 7-56 of this manual), but also the skills in writing & presenting applications (pages 60-62). Perhaps the most important aspect to empowerment however, is the heart to want to act selflessly for the benefit of the whole community. Appendix 1 on page 57 provides a comprehensive 10 step strategy to empowerment of residents with this knowledge, skills & heart. Be warned - it is costly and takes years!

For each of the services listed in the Table of Contents, we give:-

1. The relevant Central & State government department which delivers this service (with website);

2. The entitlement/right to residents as per that department's policy. We also give the 'Best Reference' website where those entitlements can be clearly seen. Many entitlements (both State and Central government) can be found here. Some of these entitlements are also set out in the Bihar state government website here. Many entitlements are also listed in a “Citizens Charter” which many government departments now have on their websites here. A summary of services available, which is available to Above & Below Poverty Line residents and the scheme/legislation name is in Appendix 2 (page 59).

3. An application procedure to apply for that entitlement; Many application procedures & forms can be found here & here. Some hard copies of forms can be found in Section K on page 66. We give hints on writing effective applications & a sample application letter in Appendix 3 (page 60). Appendix 4 (page 61) also gives some useful tips for how to deal with government officers when presenting an application. The Right to Public Services Act requires Bihar Govt officials to provide 20+ services (including caste, domicile & income certificates, driving licenses, new ration cards & social security pensions within a set time frame of in 21 to 60 days here. If they fail to do that they will be liable to be fined.

4. Create pressure: The application may not initially succeed because the officer might:-
   • Be away on leave, on 'election duty'; or
   • Claim that you've come to the wrong office; or
   • Say he has no authority to deal with your application & the officer with authority is away; or
   • Claim that he has no 'budget' this year; or
   • Claim that he doesn't have sufficient staff available; or
   • Ask for some 'chai pani' (bribe). Appendix 5 (page 62) has suggestions for dealing with corruption.)
5. Should the application not succeed, some ways to create pressure include (in order of difficulty):
   - Complaining once more to the original officer;
   - Filing a complaint under the Bihar Public Grievance Redressal System, click here;
   - Using the Central Government’s on-line grievance redressal mechanism here (go to ‘Click here to sign up’. You should get reply within 60 days (see FAQ #13 here).
   - Lodging a Right To Information (RTI) Act application to the department where you applied. Notes on the effective use of the RTI, with an example, are given in Appendix 6 (page 63);
   - Contacting lawyers at the Delhi Justice Resource Centre. Phone 011-4050170 or email delhi@justiceventures.org;
   - Conducting a ‘dharna’ (protest); or
   - Contacting the media.

6. A success story (when available) showing where all this has actually worked in real Bihar situations.

This manual has been initiated by Emmanuel Hospital Association, and further refined by Justice Ventures International, and EFICOR. If you're reading this as a hard copy, you can find a soft copy in English at EHA's website here, at Justice Ventures' website here and the Right to Food Campaign here. At those sites you’ll also find similar Advocacy Manuals for most other north Indians states including; Delhi, Uttar Pradesh, W.Bengal, MP, Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh, Harayana, Manipur, Uttarkhand, Assam, Maharashtra, Rajasthan & Odisha. At the EHA site here you’ll also find a simpler (16 page) manual for the basic Central Govt entitlements valid all over India as well as a specialised ones on Disability and Women. We'll attempt to update these manuals every two years. We're also hoping to create Hindi versions of many of these manuals. We’ve issued Creative Copyright on the manuals, which means, if you find it useful in your work, please feel free to use it however you see fit, to create any other materials from it or share it with anyone else, as long as you follow 2 rules:
   - Don’t use this or other material based on it for profit; and
   - Attribute it to EHA, JVI and EFICOR

Please Note: This manual is intended only as a guide to entitlements. While we have taken considerable care to ensure the accuracy of the information, since entitlements and grievance procedures are constantly changing, we cannot guarantee the accuracy of the information in the manual and are therefore not responsible for any difficulties encountered, should the information be found not to be accurate. If you find any errors/ inaccuracies in this manual, or have any suggestions for additions, kindly write to us, and we'll make the alterations.

2. A first Step - Identifying your area's government offices

Initially it will be useful to identify where your village/ locality falls in various levels of the central, state and local government structure. As you identify your area's information, fill it into the table below.

- Bihar is divided into 40 Lok Sabha Constituencies. Each constituency has an elected Member of Parliament (MP) responsible to an electorate of about 26 lakh people. Click here to find your constituency and your MP's name. Then go here, and choose 'Bihar' to find his/her contact details.

- Bihar State Government is divided into 243 Assembly Constituencies (ACs). Each AC has an elected Member of the Legislative Assembly (MLA)(Vidhayak) responsible to an electorate of about 4.3 lakh people. To identify your MLA & her/his contact details, click here, then click on 'Constituency' to put the list it in constituency order then find your and the name and contact details of your MLA. Currently the Janta Dal (United) Party is in power in Bihar headed by Chief minister Nitish Kumar.

- Bihar local government is divided into Gram Panchayats. On average a gram panchayat is home to 2,500 people and has 2 villages. Each Gram Panchayat elects a Pradhan.

- For administrative purposes, Bihar is divided into 9 Divisions each under the authority of a Divisional Commissioner(DC). Click here for a map of the divisions.

- Each division is further divided into several Districts (Jilas) totalling 38 districts in all in Bihar. Click here (and scroll down) for map, headquarters and population of all 38 districts. Each District is overseen by a District Magistrate DM. (Click here for list of DM's and contacts in Bihar.)

- Each district is further subdivided into several sub-districts (taluk/tehsils). Each sub district is under the authority of a Sub Divisional Magistrate (SDM). Each district is further subdivided into Development Blocks & Town Areas. To find names of Sub-Districts, Blocks & Town Areas go to http://districts.nic.in/. Click on Bihar, then click on your district, to go to your district's website.

- To identify other officers such as Chief Medical Officers etc, the websites are given on the relevant page of this manual. As you find that information, insert it in the table below.

A) Food and Water

1. Food & Water - Drinking Water

Drinking water is fundamental to human life and health. The Indian government through the scheme below is committed to getting clean drinking water to every Indian.

1. Relevant department

Central Government
- Ministry of Drinking Water & Sanitation (Web https://mdws.gov.in/).

BIHAR Government
- Bihar State Water and Sanitation Mission BSWSM (For website click here).
- Public Health Engineering Dept here.

Local Authorities
- In city areas the Nagar Nigam is responsible for water supply

2. Entitlement (Best Reference: E-book on Rural Sanitation & Drinking Water 2014 here)

Under National Rural Drinking Water Programme the goal is to:-

1. Provide 55 litres of potable water per person per day. (Drinking 3L, Cooking 5L, Bathing 15L, Washing utensils 10L, Toileting 10L, washing clothes 12L) (See page 29 of Rural Sanitation & Drinking Water E-book here).
2. Provide that source at a distance of not more than 1.6km/ or 100m elevation and one hand pump per 250 people (See Wikipedia document here under ‘Access’).
3. By 2022 ensured that at least 90% are provided with access to piped water and 80% with a household connection. (See page 27 of Rural Sanitation & Drinking Water E-book here) and BSWSM here.
4. If you are in one these Districts; Nalanda, Patna, Saran, Munger, Begusarai, West Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Banka, Nawada and Purnia. Then can apply under the RWSS-LIS Project (Rural Water Supply and Sanitation Project) for Low Income States (web here).

3. Application Procedure

a) If applying under the RWSS-LIS Project apply to the BSWSM (here) Bihar State Water & Sanitation Mission Vishweswaraiya Bhawan Complex, Bailey Road, Patna - 800015
   Phones: 0612 - 2545087, 2546005, 2545705, 2545503, 2545031

b) If quantity or quality of water source is unsatisfactory, according to entitlement above, make an application for testing or new source to Bihar State Water & Sanitation Mission click here or the public Health Engineering Dept here.

4. Advocacy (if application doesn't succeed)

- Complain to the office where you applied once again; then
- Phone BSWSM 0612 - 2545087, 2546005, 2545705, 2545503, 2545031; then
- E-mail Chief Secy. Bihar Public Grievance Cell: secy-pubgriv-bih@nic.in (here); then
- Use the Bihar Public Grievance Redressal System here; then
- RTI to whereever you applied: Bihar State Water & Sanitation Mission click here or PHED here.

5. Success Story

The handpump in Parva village not working. The village Rural and Health committee wrote an application to Department of Public Health and Engineering. After three days the Handpump was fixed.
2. Food & Water - Ration Cards

The Targeted Public Distribution System, (or 'ration card' system), aims to provide basic food stuffs at a subsidised (lower than market) price for every family. The central government has now enshrined the right to food security in law in the National Food Security Act 2013 which guarantees 5kg of foodgrains at subsidised rates for 75% of rural and 50% of urban households.

1. Relevant Department

Central Government:
- National Food Security Act (NFSA) (here).
- Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food & Public Distribution - Department of Food & Public Distribution (For website here.)

Bihar Government:
- Bihar Food and Consumer Protection Department (For website click here)

2. Entitlement

(Best Reference: National Food Security Act 2013 Sct 3(1) here. Also the Right To Food campaign here, here and here.

i) Poor residents  Every person in 'priority households' (whose name figures in priority list produced by every state govt), to receive 5 kg of food grain at a subsidised price. (National Food Security Act Sct 3(1)).

ii) Destitute Residents  (such as disabled or widowed) with no means of support can be issued with an Antyodaya Anna Yojana (AAY) Ration Card and entitled to 35kg foodgrains. (See (National Food Security Act Sct 3(1).

iii) Rates & Monthly Quantities of Rations (National Food Security Act Schedule 1 (here)).

3. Application Procedure

Eligibility is based on the Socio Economic Caste Census (SECC) in 2011. For Bihar the eligibility criteria are here. Each state government must publish a list of eligible families (NFSA Sct 10) & display that list prominently Sct 11). Search the NREGA list here. Households whose name figures on the list as either priority or Antyodya can apply for a NFSA card. If you think you are eligible according to the criteria, but are not on the list, you can still apply for a card at any Right to Public Service counter (see here).

4. Advocacy (if your application doesn't succeed)

- Complain directly to the Panchayat or circle office where you applied; then;
- Complain to the Bihar Public Grievance Redressal System here (click on 'Submit New Petition' bottom left); then
- Use the Central Government's on-line grievance redressal mechanism (register here); then
- RTI to Bihar Food and Consumer Protection Department.

B) Income

1. Income – MGNREGA

The Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act is possibly the biggest government employment scheme in the history of the world. Hundreds of millions of people benefit from the scheme. It allows all rural families, BPL or not, to be employed in a government works programme (roads, irrigation etc) 100 days a year. The hope is that this income, as well as the improved infrastructure built under the scheme, will help families stay in rural areas, rather than migrating to the city.

1. Relevant Department

Central Government

- Ministry of Rural Development (For website click http://rural.nic.in/)
- MGREGA (For web site click here.)

C) Health

1. Health - Government Hospitals

Government hospitals should provide consultations, treatment, investigations and medicines for all, for free. Unfortunately, the public hospital system is very poorly funded, leading to a lack of hospitals, doctors & medicines. Hence, hospitals are very crowded, so most of the middle class go to private hospitals.

The government has recently tried to help BPL families access medical care through private hospitals in the Pradhan Mantri Jan Arogya Yojana.

Education

1. Education - Government Schools

The schooling system is one of the main ways that the gap between the rich and the poor continues to grow in India. The poor can generally only access government schools which are Hindi medium, overcrowded and under-resourced. The middle class can send their children to English-medium private schools, where the class sizes are smaller and teaching is better. From there, those students often go to college, whereas few government-school educated students do so. The measures below aim to improve the quality of education for the poor.

1. Relevant Department

Central Government
- Ministry Human Resource Devpt. Dept of School Education & Literacy (website here).
- Sarv Shiksha Abhyan (website here).
- Right of Children to Free & Compulsory Education Act 2009 click (website here).

Bihar Government:
- Department of Education Bihar. (For website click here).

2. Entitlement (Best Reference: Right to Education Act (website here))

Under Right to Education Act
All Children (includes disabled) have right to Free elementary (up to 8th) education at a local school from the age of 6-14 (Sct 3). All parents/guardians must admit their child in a local school (Sct 10).
All schools (government & private) must:-
- Not make a child repeat a class, be expelled, or pass board exam until completion of Class 8 (Sct 16).
- Not do any physical punishment or mental harassment (Sct 17).
- Meet minimum infrastructure requirements (all-weather building, separate classrooms for each teacher, playground, library, separate boys'/girls’ toilets, drinking water, play/sports equipment (See Sct 19 & Sched).
- Have all teachers attend school regularly & punctually & complete the curriculum on time (Sct 24).
- Have Teacher-student ratio of 1:40 at primary (Class 1-5) & 1:35 for Class 6-8 (Sct 25 & Schedule, Item 1).
- NB No teachers can do private tuitions (Sct 28).

All private schools must reserve 25% seats in Class 1 for children from ‘disadvantaged groups’ (SC, ST, EWS). (Sct 12(1)(b)) See website specifically on this topic here.

3. Application Procedure for Admission

a) Admission in Government Schools
- For admission by taking child to a nearby school when the new session starts (usual April).
- Normally, you only need the child's Birth Certificate or if you don't have the birth certificate then an affidavit, but under the RTE Act, no child shall be denied admission for any reason such as not having birth certificate/transfer certificate/proof of age/seeking admission late during school year. Set 14(2).
- If child is more than 7 years old, then he/she should be put in an age appropriate grade and given special classes to get him/her up to standard of the others. (Sct 4).

b) Admission in Private schools
- If member of a disadvantaged (SC, ST, EWS < 1 lakh) and resident in Bihar for 5 years.
- Apply directly to the school in which admission is desired quoting RTE Sct 12(1)b.

5. Success story

Kadagdoni is a very interior village in Jharkhand, far from the main road. The Community Based Organisation (CBO) had been trying to get electricity to the village for years, but was faced with persistent demands for a bribe from the notoriously corrupt Electricity Board. After a little training, the CBO learnt more about their rights under the Rajeev Gandhi Grameen Vidyut Yojana (a scheme before Saubhagya) and collectively decided NOT to pay the bribe which was being demanded – but to work together to pressurise the government to get electricity. They applied to their Panchayat leader and also did lot of manual work for the clearing up the road to help the materials reach their village. Eventually they got their connection.
2. Energy – Gas

Cooking gas is cheaper & cleaner burning than kerosene, wood or cow dung, so is very useful to all households. Often distributors don't want to issue new connections, but most households have a right to one.

1. Relevant Department

Cooking gas is now semi privatised. Most connections are through:-

- Indian Oil Corporation Ltd (Indane) (here); or HP Gas (click here) or Bharat Gas (click here).
- Pradhan Mantri Ujjwala Yojana (here).

2. Entitlement (Best Ref: Indian Oil Corporation 2010 here & Pradhan Mantri Ujjwala Yojana 2016 here).

- Every household with a separate cooking area is entitled to one Gas connection (FAQ#1 here).
- 12 gas refills in each 12 month period (see web here) at a subsidised rate of approx Rs 500 (here).
- New connection for women members of BPL households who suffers from at least one ‘deprivation’ (as per the SECC) census in 2011. Rs 1600 subsidy to cover cylinder security deposit and regulator (Pradhan Mantri Ujjwala Yojana here.

3. Application Procedure

a) For new Indane connection (See FAQ#1 here)

i) Fill out the form and submit to nearest distributor. My nearest local Indane gas supplier is _____________(enter on the table on page 4).
ii) Submit proof of identity & residence (Either I Card or Ration Card, Electricity bill etc).
iii) Receive letter through registered post (to check address). Take that to distributor.
iv) Cost (see FAQ # 2 here):-
- Refundable Security Fees Rs.1450;
- Subsidised gas refill: (Approx Rs500 as of April 1st 2019- see here and scroll down to table of prices).
- Refundable deposit for Regulator Rs.150; Hose 170;
- Admin 89; Installation. Rs118; Gcard Rs59
- Total Rs 2,036 (without stove) (NB get a receipt) (NB You can use your own stove & pipe if it has ISI mark & original receipt of purchase and checked by Indane staff for Rs177 (for 2 burner); Go to here and see 'Frequently asked Question #3)

b) To get subsidy

Apply here to have subsidy paid directly to bank a/c. Middle class users are encouraged to 'Give up ' their subsidy to enable a BPL consumers to get a gas connection here. Non subsidised price Rs680-740 here.

c) Pradhan mantri Ujjwala Yojana

Apply to local gas distributor who will check to see if you’re eligible.

4. Advocacy (if application doesn't succeed)

- Phone toll free number 1800 2333555; or
- On line complaints for Indan here, or HP here.
- Complain to the Bihar Public Grievance Redressal System here (click 'Submit New Petition'); then
- Use the Central Government's on-line grievance redressal mechanism (register here); then
- RTI to Indane here, HP here or Bharat Gas here.

5. Success story

Guddan had been trying for two years to get a 'pakka' (legal) gas connection. The staff at the gas office always gave some excuse for not being 'able' to give her the connection. Then Guddan attended an advocacy workshop during which she learned about her rights to a gas connection (page 35 of this manual) and ways to advocate should the application be stalled - especially on using the Right To Information Act. Having that teaching in her mind Guddan went back to the gas office. Again the officer gave some excuses, but this time Guddan threatened to complain to his superior officer in the state capital, if she didn't get her connection quickly. The officer was shocked. That simple threat of action was enough and Guddan got her gas connection within weeks!
F) Village Facilities

1. Village Facilities – Toilets

The Indian government wants to see every household have its own toilet by 2019 (see here). There is resistance to this from many villagers, who have toileted outdoors for generations and argue that toilets without running water and proper cleaning are worse than no toilet.

Local
- Panchayat's Village Health, Sanitation & Nutrition Committee.

2. Entitlement (Best Ref: Swachh Bharat Mission (Rural) 2018 here and urban here 2014).

- BPL households, SC, ST families, small and marginal farmers, landless labourers with homestead physically handicapped and women headed households can construct toilet with cash incentive of Rs12,000 (Rs7,200 from central and Rs4,200 from state) (see page 23 point 6.4.7 here).
- Beneficiary encouraged to contribute his/her own labour (see page 23 point 6.4.8)
- Urban households also eligible for subsidy of Rs 4,000 under Swachh Bharat Mission (page 8 here).
- Community toilets to be built in urban areas, where open defecation and people don’t have enough space to construct own toilet. (page 9 point 5 here).

3. Application Procedure (see page 70 here for Bihar)

- Check eligibility for incentives.
- Build the toilet as per the guidelines
- Have the toilet checked.
- receive the incentive into your bank account.

4. Advocacy (if application doesn’t succeed)

- Complain directly to Panchayat's Village Health and Sanitation committee; then
- Using the Ministry of Drinking Water and Sanitation on-line grievance mechanism here ; then
- Complain to the Bihar Public Grievance Redressal System here (click 'Submit New Petition'); then

2. Village Facilities - Paved alleys and drains

During monsoon, moving in and around villages is difficult on dirt muddy roads, so paving and drains are very useful. The Village Health, Sanitation & Nutrition Committee has responsibility for this, so it depends on the honesty or otherwise of that committee, whether a village gets paving & drains.

4. Village facilities – Land for the landless

Through generations of caste-based discrimination, corruption, deceit & debt, many families have become landless. This consigns them to a life of renting accommodation & manual labour on other people's land. The ambitious ‘Homestead Site' scheme below, under the Indira Awas Yojana, aims to give destitute people some land, even if only enough for a house. As with all other BPL based schemes, it is only as good as the BPL list itself.

G) Farming

1. Farming – Irrigation

Much of India's population still relies on farming for a living, for which water is one of the most important commodities. With climate change, rainfall is becoming less predictable, making farming even harder. The schemes below aim to allow farmers to irrigate their land to overcome the uncertainties of the weather, to some degree.

National Mission on Micro Irrigation (website here page 13)
- Subsidy assistance the cost of the drip / sprinkler irrigation system for up to 5 hectares. For Small and Marginal farmers subsidy is 60% (50% borne by the Central govt, 10% by State govt) and the remaining 40% will have to be borne by the farmer.
- In case of general category farmers, subsidy assistance will be @ 50% of the cost of the system which will be shared in the ratio of 40:10:50 by the Central Government, State Government and the beneficiary
- DRDAs (District Rural Development Agencies), the Panchayat will be involved in selecting the beneficiaries.

National Food Security Mission (click here page 38)
- Incentive for Pump sets (for wheat, rice or pulses): Assistance @ 50% of the cost limited to Rs. 10,000/-per machine, whichever is less.
- Distribution of sprinkler sets (only for wheat or rice): Incentive: lesser of 50% of the cost or Rs 7,500 per hect.
- Priority for small and marginal farmers and women (website here page 7).

3. Application Procedure

For National Mission on Micro Irrigation apply to:-
- Gram Panchayat Office; or
- District Rural Development Agency.

For National Food Security Mission schemes apply to:-

2. Entitlement (Best Reference: PM Fasal Bima Yojana here).

   PM Fasal Bima Yojana National Agricultural Insurance Scheme (see details here).
   - Provides insurance coverage and financial support to farmers in the event of failure of any of the notified crop as a result of natural calamities, pests and diseases.
   - Compulsory for 'loanee' farmers (taking Seasonal Agricultural Operations (SAO) loans from Financial Institutions). Optional for non loanee farmers.
   - Coverage of all food crops (cereals, millets and pulses), oilseeds. Also coverage for some horticultural crops including sugarcane, cotton & potato (see page 4 here).
   - Insurance premium rates are: - (see page 13 here).
     - Kharif (Monsoon: July-Oct): 2% for all foodgain and and oilseeds;
     - Rabi (Winter Oct- March): 1.5% for wheat, and 2% for other rabi crops.
     - Horticultural crop 5%
   - Above rates are maximums. If actuarial rate is less than above rate, then only it will be charged. The rest will be covered by government as a subsidy.

3. Application Procedure

   - For eligibility and documents required see here.
   - At the beginning of each crop season, the State Govt notifies the crops and defines the areas which will be covered under the scheme during the season.
   - The farmer who desires to join the scheme fills up form on line here and submits the same along with premium in the village branch of commercial bank or Regional Rural Bank or PACS of Cooperative Bank.

H) Human Rights Abuse

1. Human Rights Abuse - Domestic Violence

While improving, the position of women in India is still very poor. Even in their own homes, many women are regularly beaten by by their husbands. This behaviour is unacceptable in the eyes of society and the government. This is reflected in the new Domestic Violence Act of 2005.

2. Entitlement (Best source for relevant laws: Domestic Violence Act 2005 here)

The Domestic Violence Act 2005 here prohibits domestic violence which includes:-

- Abuse could be whether physical, sexual, verbal, emotional or economic (includ'g dowry). (Set 3(a))
- The threat of the above abuse. (Set 3(c))
- Woman has a right to free legal advice (Set 5(d)) (through an NGO or the Legal Services Authority)

Indian Penal Code
- Sct 498A. Prohibition on husband or relative of husband of a woman subjecting her to cruelty.

Remedies available
- Under the DV Act the abused woman can apply for living in safe shelter (Sct 6), a Protection Order (Set 18), Custody Order for her children (Set 21) and/or financial compensation (Set 22).

*NB. EHA has now produced a whole manual on accessing schemes for Women. See the EHA website www.eha-health.org'Downloads/Advocacy manuals/All India/Women's Advocay Manual'.

3. Application / Accessing Relief

It is important that another woman (relative or from community or NGO) must be present along with the abused woman in the presentation of the application. The applicant can:-

- Talk to Gram Panchayat (preferably the women members) which may solve problem locally; or
- Inform the District Probation Officer (DPO) who has some power in domestic violence; or
- Alert the local Protection Officer (DVA Set 8); or
- Contact another non-Gov't women's support organisation in your state (contacts here); or
- Talk to the Bihar Women's Commission (address below). The woman gives a statement. The Commission calls the abuser. If he doesn't appear, it forwards the complaint to court; or
- The abused woman or the Protection Officer or Women's Commission can then:
- Lodge an FIR at the local Police Station (after which police must arrange for medical examination/ certificate & will investigate the abuse); or
- Apply for Safe Shelter, a Protection Order, Custody Order for children or Compensation from crts.

4. Advocacy (if application doesn't succeed)

- Contact another NGO support organisation in your state contacts here; then
- Complain to the Police SP or SSP for your district (details here); then

3. Human Rights Abuse - Child Marriage

According to UNICEF, 47% of girls are married by 18 years of age, and 18% are married by 15 years of age. Far from the excitement of love and marriage portrayed in Bollywood, life for many girls married before 18 is awful, becoming little more than a household slave and having pressure to bear children when it is still unsafe. Girls 15-19 are twice as likely to die during pregnancy and childbirth than women in their twenties. In effect, the girl bride's childhood is cruelly cut short by marriage. The law now prohibits girls to marry before 18 and boys before 21.

4. Human Rights Abuse – Trafficking of children

Many children are given or sold by a family member, believing the child will get work or study. Often these children however, are then denied contact with their families and mistreated. Many end up in bonded labour (see page 49) and even prostitution (see page 48). The life for a trafficked child is horrific, yet it happens to thousands of girls in our own country every year. The only way to stop it is for ordinary people, like you and me to act if we see anything suspicious. Any missing child or any suspicious activity that you think could be related to trafficking should be reported to the police or Childline.

5. Human Rights Abuse – Sex Trafficking

Many young women and girls are given or sold to a trafficker by family member, believing she will get work, study or marriage in the city. Often however, the girls end up in prostitution in Kolkata, Mumbai, Delhi & Gujarat. The life for a young girl, torn from her family, trafficked into prostitution and then raped multiple times a day for years is horrific, yet it happens to thousands of girls in our country every year.

6. Human Rights Abuse – Bonded/Forced Labour

The Bonded Labour Act defines it as an “agreement” to provide ‘forced labour’. An ‘agreement’ is broadly defined and could be an agreement to get a payment, an advance; to fulfil a customary or social obligation; to repay relative's debt; or simply by birth into a particular community. Labour is deemed ‘forced’ if there is; restricted freedom of; 1) employment; 2) movement; 3) sale goods and services in the marketplace or 4) payment is below minimum wage. 90% of bonded labourers are from the SC/ST community. Thus often children or family members are given to a powerful landowner to 'pay off' a debt, only for the work to never be properly accounted, exorbitant interest charged, and the labourer never becomes free. This is modern day slavery.

c) Apply for an Aadhaar Card (page 51) as that will entitle you to a bank account as well.

d) For other banks:
- Filled up Form (including 'introducer' who already has an account in that branch for more than 6months);
- Address proof (Ration Card & I card with same address); and
- Rs 500 minimum deposit to open the account.

4. Advocacy (if application doesn't succeed)

- An appeal directly to the Bank Manager/Post office Manager; then
- Complain to the Bihar Public Grievance Redressal System here (click 'Submit New Petition'); then
- Use the Central Government's on-line grievance redressal mechanism (register here); then
- RTI to Ministry of Finance (for PIO’s see here).

5. Success Story

Kareen (from the Death Certificate story above) only had the Voter I-Card and death certificate of her husband. The SBI Bank at Seelampur was asking for a Ration card with the same address. The Food and Supply officer wasn't issuing ration cards, so a local community worker made a special appeal to the SBI bank Manager who agreed to open an account for Kareen.

1. A 10 Step Process for Empowering a Community

1. Build deep relationships with residents in the community
The key to any lasting change in a poor community is the residents themselves. Often however, after generations of poverty and being ignored by the powerful, residents are so disempowered so much so that they passively accept their situations. Vitally important to a community being able to identify and solve its own problems then, is for a small group of residents to become empowered by developing their knowledge, skills, courage and self-confidence to become change agents within their own community. The best way to help key residents to develop this knowledge, skills, courage and self-confidence, is by the NGO’s own staff forming strong mutual, caring relationships with several key community members. So, from the very beginning of the process, staff should be looking to form good relationships with key residents. In choosing with whom to make the relationships, deliberately look for key people with the right 'heart' who can potentially take the community forward in their development journey after the NGO's staff leave.
An added advantage to forming good relationships with residents is that the NGO will tend to get the 'real' story about the community when doing research in Step 2.

2. Learn about the community - Observe & enquire
It's important to start the empowerment process by being learners, rather than experts. One of the best ways to learn about the community is to simply walk around and observe the situation with respect to housing, power, sanitation, water, community relations, marginalised groups etc. Some things about the colony however, can't be observed, such as the history of the colony, what residents appreciate and what they perceive to be their priority problems. For these, more hidden aspects, you need to enquire, especially of those with whom you are developing close and mutual relationships (from Step 1 above.)

3. Analyse the problems yourself and with your colleagues
In order for the NGO's staff themselves to have a sense of the most pressing problems, as a team analyse what was learnt from Step 2. This analysis may reveal which problems affect most residents, which problems may create opposition, and reveal which problems will have the best chance of being resolved successfully. This analysis is not so as to impose those findings on the community, but rather to have thought about these issues before running the community meeting (Step 4), to decide on which problem to tackle first. Part of this analysis can be a 'power analysis' to find which stakeholders have most power to bring a solution to a possible problem & whether those stakeholders are likely to want that solution or not.

4. Hold a community meeting to prioritise the problems
Even though the NGO's team has done its own analysis in Step 3, it's vital for the final decision as to which problem is tackled first, to actually be taken by the residents themselves. This is done in a community meeting attended by representatives of as many groups of residents as possible; women, children, Muslims, Hindus, the disadvantaged, and so on. This is one of the most difficult steps in the entire process, as running a successful community meeting with many different groups and different opinions is very difficult. The facilitator will attempt to hear all parties, quieten the loudest voices and ultimately build consensus among the residents as to which problem to tackle first.

5. Become an expert in the resources that could solve the problems
After the community has decided which problem to tackle first, the NGO team can use this Manual, its wider networks, internet research, RTI (Right To Information) applications, and so forth to gather relevant information on resources available to the community that may be used to solve the problem. These resources may be found in the government (as seen in this Manual), or delivered by other NGOs, or indeed within the community itself. Again, this research is not done so as to impose those resources on the community, but rather to have options to put to residents in the next community meeting when developing a Plan of Action (Step 6).
6. Plan action to solve the problem
Another community meeting is held to make a plan of action to solve the priority problem decided in Step 4. The plan needs to specify who will do what, when it will be done, and who will pay for any expenses. While the NGO's staff may be a part of the action plan, it's vital that the NGO's staff not take too much responsibility. If residents aren't willing to get involved, then it indicates a lack of commitment to the process. The NGO's staff need to wait until there is sufficient commitment before moving on. This planning phase may also be a good point at which to introduce God as a willing helper in the problem-solving process. In the multi-faith context of India, most people will readily agree to call on God within their own tradition to help solve community problems.

7. Take the action agreed
Residents who have agreed to take steps in the Action Plan (from Step 6) then take those steps. Often these steps involve advocating with government officers to implement existing government services which should be available to residents. Usually this will involve using the Application Procedure outlined in this Manual.

8. Reflect on the action taken
If, after carrying out the plan of action, residents have succeeded in solving the problem, then it's important to celebrate the success! If you haven't succeeded, then you need to make a new plan probably using the Advocacy Steps outlined in this Manual and using the learnings from step 7.

Then cycle through steps 6-8 until the problem is solved or becomes unsolvable.

9. Do it all again with less involvement from the NGO & more from the residents
After the resolution of the first problem, return to Step 4 and choose the next community problem to tackle. In doing so, the NGO's staff take less responsibility, while encouraging residents to take more responsibility. In this way, gradually the residents, especially the 'good-hearted' people, learn the whole problem-solving process well enough that they can eventually do it without the help of the NGO's staff.

10. Form a CBO
The 'good-hearted' people identified in Step 1, and mentored through the entire problem-solving process, will eventually form an independent CBO (Community Based Organisation), that will carry on facilitating the community's development after the NGO’s staff leave. That group may, after some time, wish to register as a formal Community Welfare Association, to give it more authority in dealing with the government, as well as more accountability.

3. Writing Effective Applications (with example)

In your letter of application be sure to include the following:-

1. A clear statement of your problem. For example, There are many young children in your village but there has never been an aanganwadi. A photo of the problem (e.g. many children) will make the letter even better.

2. The right you have to this scheme and the relevant law (see 'Best Reference' next to Entitlement on the relevant page). For example, under the National Food Security Act 2013, Sect 5(1)(a) every child from 6 months to 6 years has the right to a cooked meal at the Anganwadi each day.

3. Your request that is specific and clear. What do you want by when? For example, you want several aanganwadis begun by 30th June 2019.

4. Next Steps: If you don't get this action what you will do. For example, if the aanganwadi has not been begun by 30th June 2019, you'll lodge an RTI.

NB Copy your application to the state government office responsible for this scheme, so the local officer is more likely to respond to you.

Thus an example letter might look like this:-

The Manager
Integrated Child Development Services
Bhojpur District
Bihar

Re: Aanganwadi on Demand in Sivarampur village

Dear sir,

I live in Sivarampur village in District Bhojpur. I respectfully state the following:-

1. Our village has a population of 2,350 of which 272 are children from 6 months – 6 years old. I have attached a list of the children of this age in our village, together with a photo of them.

2. I note from the National Food Security Act 2013, Sect 5(1)(a) that every child from 6 months to 6 years has the right to a cooked meal at an Anganwadi each day.

3. I would therefore like to apply for several aanganwadi’s for our village. I would like these aanganwadi’s to begin by 30 June, 2019.

4. If the aanganwadi is not begun by 30 June 2019, I will lodge an application under the RTI Act 2005 to know what has happened with this application.

Kind regards,

Ramesh Kumar

4. Tips on Effectively Lodging Applications

A. Preparation for the meeting
- Take someone from the community.
- Have the purpose of the visit clearly in mind.
- Get an appointment if possible.
- Dress formally.
- Take your ID card & visiting card if you have them.
- Have your diary, paper & pen.
- Take 2 copies of any letter or document you want to present.
- Take the originals of any copies you may need to give.
- Know where the office is.
- Have enough money for an auto rickshaw (if getting late).
- Get there on time.
- Know the rules & policies (including this officer's superior's name) well before you go in.
- Decide what pressure you're prepared to apply BEFORE you go in, if he/she is unreasonable.
- Decide who will speak.

B. During the meeting
- Introduce yourself and, if appropriate, check his/her name and position.
- Clearly state your purpose for coming (may involve giving the letter - if so get a received stamp).
- Stay calm! If there's an argument or raised voices you will lose!
- Repeat whatever he says to you (whether negative or positive). Often when the officer hears his unreasonable response repeated, he softens it.
- If you can't get him/her to 'receive' your application, then at least fix any future date in your diary. Remember 'later' means never, so never accept ‘I’ll do it later’.
- Clearly state whatever follow up you intend to make.
- Thank him/her!

C. Debrief the meeting
- If you went with someone from the community then debrief the meeting by asking: - “How was that meeting for you?”

D. Record the meeting
Write down:
- Date & time of meeting.
- Who you met with.
- Result of the meeting (attach extra sheet if necessary).
- Any expense.
- Attach the ‘received’ copy of any letter given.
Put any follow up on the appropriate date in your diary.

E. Follow up on the meeting
- Do whatever it was that you said to the officer you would do.
- If there was a promise for some action by the officer, check with him/her that it will happen as the date approaches.
- Once a positive result has been achieved, make sure to thank him/her with phone call.
5. Dealing with Corruption

How does corruption work?
Many times, a government officer will not accept or process your application, or simply delay working on it until s/he receives a bribe. Usually these requests are unspoken, or will have code words like 'chai pani' or 'kuchh de do' (give something). Sometimes, rather than taking bribes directly from the public, middlemen (dalaals) take 'service fees' from the public to get some government work done, a proportion of which they then pay as a bribe to the official to get the work done. Like everything else in a capitalist economy, there is a supply and demand, so the more desperate the demand for the service, the more the bribe is likely to be. Of course, there will not be any receipt issued for any such payments, making it hard to prove the bribery. If accused, the official will simply deny that he/she ever received anything. Such bribes can amount to huge amounts of money, such that many government officers have to pay huge bribes themselves to be posted in jobs where the potential for bribe collection is large. Many people are desperate enough to get their work done - ration card, or birth certificate made, that they pay such fees and commissions. This is understandable, given the frustration of getting what you need without bribing.

What are the problems with the system?
- The more people pay bribes, the more it becomes entrenched in the system.
- Since the poor can't afford the bribes, corruption effectively excludes them from accessing the very services that were designed to benefit them. Hence, many widows aren't getting pensions, and many impoverished families don't have subsidised gas, simply because they can't afford the bribe!
- Some honest, hard-working government officers, are corrupted by this system.
- The bribes slow down systems that could & should work much more efficiently.

What can we do when faced with a request for a bribe?

a) Before the interaction.
- Know your rights, applicable fees etc (perhaps using this Manual) so you can't be deceived.
- Where possible, lodge application on-line or by post, to avoid possible bribe requests.
- For written applications, use the format in Appendix 3 (page 60), so officer knows you're serious.
- Go with another person, so that there's a witness to any request for bribe.

b) During the interaction. If an officer asks you for 'chai pani' or 'kuch de do' then:-
- Ask him/her to show you where the fee is written down (to highlight its illegality).
- Say you'll happily pay the fee, if he gives you a receipt (also to highlight its illegality).
- Repeat his/her request loudly, so that others in the vicinity hear and s/he gets embarrassed.
- If he/she persists, make a show of noting the details of the interaction in a way that the officer knows you're noting it. Note the day, time, place & exact request. Note the officer's name & designation. If he refuses to give his name, then note down any feature that might identify him, like a name badge, which desk he's sitting at or any physical features.

c) After the interaction. Decide whether this is an important enough issue to take further action over. If so: -
- Type out concisely the details of what happened; date, place, time, officer, exact request etc; then
- Find the name of the bribe-taking officer's superior, (from others, websites, or this Manual); then
- Present your written complaint to the superior officer (or to any other complaint body listed in the 'Advocacy' section of each service in this Manual).
- When making the complaint, get a 'received' stamp. Include a request that he notify you of what action s/he takes. Also include the threat that if you don't hear anything within 2 weeks, you'll lodge an RTI to find out what happened. Then actually do whatever you threaten to do; then
- If still nothing happens, phone CBI anti-corruption number 9968 081216,7,8; then
- Complain to Bihar Public Grievance Redressal System here (click on 'Submit New Petition'; then
- Use the Central Government's on-line grievance redressal mechanism (register here); then
- If still nothing happens, contact an NGO working in this field; then
- Go to the media.

Back to Village Information page 4  Back to Table of Contents page 5  Go to Acronyms page 65  Page 62
6. Notes on effective use of the RTI (with example)

1. When is the RTI useful?
When you have a personal problems (e.g., Pension application not processed) or a community problem (e.g., Anganwadi not functioning); and
- You've applied for some government service to solve the problem (using the 'Application Procedure' in this Manual); and
- The normal period has expired; and
- Other advocacy suggestions (in this manual) haven't worked.

2. How to write an RTI

   a) Necessary information
   - The name of the department you applied to, the relevant Public Information Officer, and the address;
   - Date;
   - Mention of “The Right to Information Act 2005”;
   - The information requested (see below, and example following);
   - Fee Rs10 (remember to get the receipt) (for BPL Card holders, no fee, attach a copy of BPL card);
   - Your signature (of the applicant);
   - Your name; address; and telephone number.

   b) In the body of your RTI, include these 5 points (see example below)
   - i. State the date of your original application and attach a copy;
   - ii. Ask the time that it should take to process an application according to the Citizens Charter or rules;
   - iii. Ask what action has been taken, by which officers (with names), on which dates, since you applied;
   - iv. Ask what punishment has been or will be given to the officers responsible for the delay; and
   - v. Ask when your application will be processed.

3. To Whom / How to lodge your RTI

   To whom to lodge RTI?
The RTI should be sent to the Public Information Officer (PIO) of the concerned Government department. The relevant page in this manual gives links for relevant PIO.
If it turns out NOT to be the correct government department, it's the PIO's responsibility to send the RTI to the correct place (Sct 6(3) of the RTI Act 2005).

   How to lodge the RTI?
* On-Line: For Central Government Dept/Ministries, can file and pay on-line at https://rtionline.gov.in/; or
* By Speed/Registerd Post: (so you have a record). For RTI fee, use Postal Order with Payee line blank; or
* In person at the department
For all methods, the reply should still come w/i 30 days from the original RTI lodgement.

4. Possible Results and actions

   There are 5 possible results & corresponding actions to your RTI as seen in the table:-

Sub: Application under the RTI act 2005

For information regarding application for birth certificate of Nazma Khatoum

Sir,

i. I made an application for a birth certificate for my daughter Nazma Khatoum (DOB 2nd Oct 2011) at the Samastipur SDM office on 1st October 2018. A copy of that application is attached. No satisfactory action has been taken on my application so far. Therefore kindly provide the following information: -

ii. According to the rules and regulations of your department, what is the stipulated time within which a birth certificate should be issued?

iii. Please provide the daily progress made on my application. Please give the names and designations of the officials with whom my application was lying during this period. Please state the periods when it was lying with which officer, and what was the action taken by that official during that period.

iv. What actions will be taken against such officer/employee who did not perform their duties on time and caused this delay? When will this action be taken?

v. When will I receive my daughter’s birth certificate?

I am depositing the application fee (Rs10) separately for this RTI.

If you feel that the above requested information does not pertain to your department, then please follow the provisions of section 6(3) of the RTI Act 2005. Also, as per the provisions of the RTI Act, 2005, please provide the name and designation of the officer in your department, where I may file my first appeal, if I am not satisfied with the answers provided.

Thank you.
