Advocacy Works - Some real stories!

Kareen gets a widows Pension

Kareen moved to the city from her village as a young married woman. She, her husband and 4 children lived in a makeshift 'jhuggi' (hut) in an unauthorised colony in the city's outskirts. In 2008 Kareen's 11 month old baby girl died- probably to diarrhoea. A couple of months later Kareen lost her husband. This time it was probably to TB. Kareen (pictured right) was now left with 3 children, no income, living in a tiny hut and incredibly vulnerable.

The state government has a widows pension of Rs1,000 a month but Kareen wasn't getting it. Some simple enquiries and found that it was the Department of Social Welfare that administers pensions (see page 12 of this manual). The department said that Kareen wasn't eligible for a pension because she didn't have a bank account. Kareen had never had a bank account, so some community worker friends went to the local bank to find out about getting one. "No," the manager informed them, "we need some identity documentation to open an account" (See page 47 of this manual). Kareen had no such documentation, so next stop was the Electoral Commission. The community workers asked the Commission to issue an Electoral Identity Card (I Card) for Kareen. After several days the officials visited her at her hut. They shook their heads and said; "No, sorry, because she lives in a slum hut, we won't give her an I card." They protested & cited the rule that all Indian residents are eligible for I cards whether they live in a palace or a slum hut (see page 43 of this Manual). After a little more hand wringing, they finally agreed.

A week or so later, armed with the I Card, the community workers went back to the bank, which thankfully opened the account. Next they went back to Social Welfare Department, confident they'd succeed. "No!" came the answer. "Even with the Bank account, she still needs some official government document proving she's been resident in here for 5 years!" Exasperated, they wrote a letter of appeal to the head of the Social Welfare Department (see guidelines for letters on page 52), which finally acceded to their request. So after 6 months of doing battle with the bureaucracy, Kareen finally got her pension, back-paid for 5 months, so now she had Rs5,000 in her own bank account! She beamed ! It wasn't much, but the regular amount might be enough for Kareen and her children to survive.

Women get MGNREGA jobs

The women in Jagir village didn't know whether women were eligible to work under the MGREGA scheme or not (see page 11 of this manual). Their husbands had a 'Job Card' under the scheme, but they didn't know if they were eligible. A local NGO's project staff informed them that indeed they, as women, were entitled to work in the scheme. Knowing this, the women went to the Gram Pradhan to ask for work. They eventually got manual work (and income) in road construction under MGNREGA.

Guddan gets a Gas Connection

Guddan had been trying for two years to get a 'pakka' (legal) gas connection. The staff at the gas office always gave some excuse for not being 'able' to give her the connection. Then Guddan attended an advocacy workshop during which she learned about her rights to a gas connection (page 31 of this manual) and ways to advocate should the application be stalled - especially on using the Right To Information Act. Having that teaching in my mind Guddan went back to the gas office. Again the officer gave some excuses, but this time Guddan threatened to complain to his superior officer in the state capital, if she didn't get her connection quickly. The officer was shocked. That simple threat of action was enough and Guddan got her gas connection within weeks!

A) Introduction

1. About this Manual

Uttarakhand (UK) has a surprising number of government services available to its residents. Many of those services should, by rights, be available to the poor residents of villages & urban slums. Unfortunately however, many poor residents are not able to avail of these services due either to the corruption of some officials, or ignorance or lack of confidence in residents themselves.

Often when NGO's find these government services not functioning, they attempt to provide those services themselves, opening schools, clinics, vocational training programmes etc. Such service provision has the advantage that it may endear the NGO to people and may see results quite quickly. However, the NGO can't provide these services forever. Sooner or later they need to help residents to access these services which, in the long run, only the government can provide.

The information in this manual is only a part of a bigger strategy to empower UK's poor residents. Empowerment involves not only giving the poor the knowledge of services available (pages 7-48 of this manual), but also the skills in writing & presenting applications (pages 52-57). Perhaps most important aspect to empowerment however, is the heart to want to act selflessly for the benefit of the whole community. Appendix 1 on page 49 provides a comprehensive 10 step strategy to empowerment of residents with this knowledge, skills & heart. Be warned - it is costly and takes years!

For each of the services listed in the Table of Contents, we give:-

1. The relevant Central & State government department which delivers this service (with website). Most State government websites can be found here or here.
2. The entitlement/right to residents as per that department's policy. We also give the 'Best Source' website where those entitlements can be clearly seen. Many entitlements can be found at the Central Governments Citizens' website here or the Uttarkhand government website here. A summary of services available & which is available to Above & Below Poverty Line residents is in Appendix 2 (page 51).
3. An application procedure to apply for that entitlement; Many application procedures & forms can be found here & here. Some hard copies of forms can be found in Section L on page 59. We give hints on writing effective applications & a sample application letter in Appendix 3 (page 52). We all know however, that for many reasons, the application may not initially succeed. The officer might:-
  - Be away on leave, on 'election duty'; or
  - Claim that you've come to the wrong office; or
  - Say he has no authority to deal with your application & the officer with authority is on leave or sick;
  - Claim that he has no 'budget' this year; or
  - Claim that he doesn't have sufficient staff available; or
  - Ask for some 'chai pani' (bribe). Appendix 5 (page 54) has suggestions for dealing with corruption.)

Depending on the likelihood of these excuses, for each scheme, we give our rating of the chance of success & a suggested time frame. Appendix 4 (page 53) gives some useful tips for how to deal with government officers when presenting an application.

4. Advocacy steps, should that application not be successful initially; including (in order of difficulty):-
- Complaining once more to the original officer;
  - Using the Government's on-line grievance redressal mechanism <http://pgportal.gov.in/>
  - Using the Uttarkhand's on-line grievance redressal mechanism here
  - Lodging a Right To Information (RTI) Act application to the department where you applied. Notes on the effective use of the RTI with an example are given in Appendix 6 (page 55) to help you with this;
  - Contacting Justice Ventures lawyers at the Delhi Justice Resource Centre. Phone 011-4050170 or email delhi@justiceventures.org
  - Conducting a 'dharna' (protest); then
  - Contacting the media. (Appendix 7 page 57 gives some tips on media.)
5. A success story (when available) showing where all this has actually worked in real UK situations.

If you find this manual useful in your advocacy, as we hope you will, please feel free to share it with any other genuine NGO's/individuals who are working with the poor in UK. It is deliberately not copyrighted. If you're reading this as a hard copy, you can find a soft copy in English (and Hindi) at EHA's website:- <http://www.eha-health.org> under 'Downloads/Advocacy Manuals'. We've also created similar Advocacy Manuals for most other north Indians states including; Delhi, Uttar Pradesh, W.Bengal, MP, Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh, Bihar, Harayana, Manipur, Assam, Maharashtra, Rajasthan & Odisha (most in English & Hindi), together with specialised manuals for Women's Rights and People With Disabilities all of which are available at the JVI or EHA websites for free. We'll attempt to revise these manuals every year so they stay up to date.

Finally, entitlements and grievance procedures are constantly changing, so if you find any errors/ inaccuracies in this manual, or have any suggestions for additions, kindly write to us & we'll make the alterations.

2. A first Step - Identifying your area's government offices

Initially it will be useful to identify where your village falls in various levels of the central & state government structure. As you identify your area's information, fill it into the table below.

- UK is divided into 5 Lok Sabha Constituencies. Each constituency has an elected Member of Parliament (MP) responsible to an electorate of about 20 lakh people. To find your MP's name & details, click here. click on UK, then find your constituency to see your MP's name. Click on his name to find more details (mobile number etc) of your MP.
- UK State Government is divided into 70 Assembly Constituencies (ACs). Each AC has an elected Member of the Legislative Assembly (MLA)( Vidhayak) responsible to an electorate of about 3.2 lakh people. To identify your MLA & her/his contact details, click here and scroll down to find your constituency and the name of the MLA. For your local polling booth and voters list here.
- UK local government is divided into Gram Panchayats. On average a gram panchayat is home to 5,000 people and has 2 villages. Each Gram Panchayat has an elected Pradhan.
- For administrative purposes, UK is divided into 2 Divisions each under the authority of a Divisional Commissioner(DC). Click here for a map and scroll down for list of each division.
- Each division is further divided into several Districts (Jilas) totalling 13 districts in all in UK. Click here (and scroll down) for map, headquarters and population of all 13 districts. Each District is overseen by a District Magistrate DM.
- Each district is further sub divided into several sub-districts (taluk/tehsils). Each sub district is under the authority of a Sub Divisional Magistrate (SDM). Each district is further subdivided into Development Blocks & Town Areas. To find names of Sub-Districts, Development Blocks & Town Areas go to <http://districts.nic.in/> & click on your district to go to your district's website.
- To identify other officers such as Chief Medical Officers etc, the websites are given on the relevant page of this manual. As you find that information, insert it in the table.

B) Food and Water

1. Food & Water - Drinking Water

Drinking water is fundamental to human life and health. The Indian government through the scheme below is committed to getting clean drinking water to every Indian.

1. Relevant department

Central Government

- Ministry of Drinking Water & Sanitation (Web <http://www.mdws.gov.in/>).

Uttarakhand Government:

- Uttarakhand Jal Sansthan (For website click here <http://uj.s.uk.gov.in/> )

Local Authorities:

- In city areas Garhwal Jal Sansthan is responsible for water supply.

2. Entitlement (Best Source: E-book on Rural Sanitation & Drinking Water 2014 here)

Under National Rural Drinking Water Programme the goal is to:-

1. Provide 55 litres of potable water per person per day. (Drinking 3L, Cooking 5L, Bathing 15L, Washing utensils 10L, Toileting 10L, washing clothes 12L) (See page 29 of Rural Sanitation & Drinking Water E-book here)
2. Provide that source at a distance of not more than 500 meters/30 minutes (See p7 of 2010) NRDWP document here.)
3. Provide by 2022 90% of all rural households with access to piped water and 80% with a household connection. (See page 27 of Rural Sanitation & Drinking Water E-book here)

3. Application Procedure (Chance of success 20%. Time frame 6 months)

- a) Look to see if the government information on water supply in your village is accurate at the Central government website here (search for a particular village);
- b) At central government website here find if the government has tested water sources in your block;
- c) If quantity or quality of water source is unsatisfactory, according to entitlement above, make an application for testing or new source to Uttarakhand Jal Sansthan (contacts here).

4. Advocacy (if application doesn't succeed)

- i. Complain to the office where you applied once again; then
- ii. Using the Uttarkhand's on-line grievance redressal mechanism here ; then
- iii. RTI to Uttarakhand Jal Sansthan (contacts here).; then
- iv. Using the Government's on-line grievance redressal mechanism <http://pgportal.gov.in/> ; then
- v. Contact the Indian Sanitation Portal here.; then
- vi. Conducting a 'dharna' or contacting the media. (Appendix 7 page 57 gives some tips on the media.)

2. Food & Water - Ration Cards

Formally known as the Targeted Public Distribution System, the 'ration card' system, aims to provide basic food stuffs at a subsidised (lower than market) price for every family. The central government has recently enshrined the right to food security in law in the National Food Security Act 2013 which guarantees 5kg of foodgrains at subsidised rates for 75% of rural households and 50% of urban.

Central Government:

- National Food Security Act (NFSA) Sct 3 (here).
- Ministry of Consumer Affairs of Food & Public Distribution - Department of Food & Public Distribution (For website here.)
- Ministry of Women and Child Development Nutrition Resource Platform www.poshan.nic.in

Uttarakhand Government:

- Department of Food and Civil Supplies FSO (For website click here).

2. Entitlement (Best Sources: National Food Security Act 2013 here & here) Supreme Court Commissioners 2011 here

i) Poor residents Every person in 'priority household' (whose name figures in priority list produced by every state govt), to receive 5 kg of food grain at a subsidised price. (National Food Security Act Sct 3(1).

ii) Destitute Residents (such as disabled or widowed) with no means of support can be issued with an Antyodaya Anna Yojana (AAY) Ration Card whether or not they are on BPL list, and entitled to 35kg foodgrains at subsidised rate. (See (National Food Security Act Sct 3(1) & Supreme Court order here).

iii) Rates & Monthly Quantities of Rations National Food Security Act Schedule 1 (here) and UK here.

	Wheat	Rice	Sugar	Kerosene
Under NFSA
'Eligible Households' (5kg/person)	Rs4 (20kg)	Rs6 (15kg)	Rs1 (500-600g)	Rs14.15 (5-7 lts)
'BPL	Rs2 (10kg)	Rs3 (24kg)	Rs1 (500-600g)	Rs14.15 (5-7 lts)
Antyodaya (35kg per household)	Rs2 (10kg)	Rs3 (24kg)	Rs1 (500-600g)	Rs14.15 (5-7 lts)

3. Application Procedure

i) APL procedure: Lodge Form (download here or hard copy on page 59 )

ii) BPL/Eligible application procedure (Chance of success 10%. Time frame 6 months)

Each state government must publish a list of eligible families (NFSA Sct 10 & display that list prominently Sct 11). Check if you are on the 'Eligible' list. Households whose name figures on the list can apply for a BPL ration card by Lodging Form (download here or hard copy on page 59 ) at your Circle Office with:- Rs25; Proof of residence (copy of electricity Bill etc or Witness of 2 neighbours); Two passport photos, 1 attested by MLA. After necessary verification, the ration Card is issued.

iii) Antyodaya Anna Yojana application procedure (Chance of success 10%. Time frame 6 mths)
As above, but with a self declaration in the Form itself of being destitute.

4. Advocacy (if application doesn't succeed)

- Complain directly to the Panchayat or circle office where you applied; then;
- If not getting Ration Card at all or should be on the BPL list but not, then can appeal (Sup Crt here).
- Using the Uttarkhand' Governments on-line grievance redressal mechanism here
- Using the central Government's on-line grievance redressal mechanism here
- RTI to UK State Dept of Food & Civil Supplies (Contacts here).
- Contact the Right To Food Campaign (website is here).

3. Food & Water - Anganwadis

Millions of children in India are malnourished. The Anganwadi scheme aims to give all young children 6 months-6 years (before they go to school) a nutritious meal, basic immunisations & vitamins. Once they are at school, the children are eligible for the midday meal scheme (see Food – Mid Day Meal on page 10). The central government has recently enshrined the right to food security for children in law in the National Food Security Act 2013 which guarantees Anganwadi meals.

1. Relevant Department

Central Government

- National Food Security Act (NFSA) Sct 5(1)a (here).
- Ministry of Women & Child Development (For website click <http://wcd.nic.in/>.)

Uttarakhand Government:

- Integrated Child Development Scheme (here)

2. Entitlement (Best Source:Supreme Court Commissioners here & National Food Security Act 2013 here & Right to Food here)

Under National Food Security Act (NFSA) Sct 5(a) Every child from 6 months to 6 years has the right to a cooked meal at the Anganwadi each day.

- There should be one Angan Wadi Centre (AWC) for every 40 children under the age of 6. (Supreme Court Order here page 3 point 2).
- Children receive a 500 calorie nutritious snack of like daliya, channa etc); (NFSA Sched II)
- Malnourished children receive a 800 calorie take home snack; (NFSA Sched II)
- For pregnant and nursing mothers a 600 calorie take home snack. (NFSA Sched II)
- Children to have supervised educational play with educational toys; (WCD here)
- Children to receive basic immunisations, medicines (eg worm tabs), vitamins (eg Iron); & undergo weight/height monitoring which is recorded on their chart. (See Right to Food Brochure here).

3. Application Procedure (Chance of success 30%. Time frame 2 months)

- a) Get list of 40, 3-6 yr olds in your village including:-Name, Address, Gender, DOB & Parents' acceptance. (Supreme Court Order here (see point 9) or here (page 3 point 2) for this 'Anganwadi on Demand'.
- b) Submit the list to the ICDS office at Women Empowerment & Child Development head office in Dehradun (contacts here).

4. Advocacy (if application doesn't succeed)

- i. Written complaint to the ICDS office where you applied; then
- ii. RTI to Dept of Women Empowerment & Child Development here.
- iii. Contact the Right To Food Campaign (website is here).
- iv. Using the Uttarkhand' Governments on-line grievance redressal mechanism here
- v. Using the Central Government's on-line grievance redressal mechanism here

4. Food & Water- Mid Day Meal Scheme

The Mid Day Meal Scheme (MDMS) aims to give all school going children up to standard 8, one nutritious meal a day. It has also been dogged by corruption, but in some states is working well. Serving over 100 million children it is the biggest nutrition programme in world ! The central government has recently enshrined the right to food security for school children in law in the National Food Security Act 2013 which guarantees Mid Day meals.

1. Relevant Department

Central Govt

- Ministry of Human Resource Development, Dept of School Education & Literacy (Website here)

Uttarakhand Government:

- Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (Website here)

2. Entitlement (Best Source: Supreme Court Commissioners here & National Food Security Act 2013 here & Right to Food here)

As per National Food Security Act (NFSA) Sct 5(1)b:-

- Every child up to class 8 or between ages of 6-14 is entitled to a free Mid Day Meal
- On every school day.
- Meal should be of at least 450 calories for Classes 1-5 & 750 for Classes 6-8 (NFSA Sched II).

As per the (Supreme Court Order here:-

- In drought affected areas meal should be served during summer holidays as well.

For more information see Right to Food Website here.

3. Application Procedure (Chance of success 90%. Time frame 1 month)

- All Government schools Classes (1-8) should have a midday meal scheme already.
- If they don't, parents of children can apply directly to the school concerned.

4. Advocacy (if application doesn't succeed)

2 parents per day have a right to inspect the food. If there is a problem in the quantity or quality of the food then:-

- i. Complain directly to the school; then
- ii. RTI to Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (Website here); then
- iii. Contact the Right To Food Campaign (website here)
- iv. Using the Uttarakhand' Governments on-line grievance redressal mechanism here

C)Income

1. Income – MGNREGA

The Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act is possibly the biggest government employment scheme in the history of the world. Hundreds of millions of people benefit from the scheme. It allows all rural families, BPL or not, to be employed in a government works programme (roads, irrigation etc) 100 days a year. The hope is that this income, as well as the improved infrastructure built under the scheme, will be enough to help families stay in rural areas, rather than migrating to the city.

1. Relevant Department

Central Government

- Ministry of Rural Development (For website click <http://rural.nic.in/>.)

Uttarakhand Government:

- Department of Rural Development (For website click here)

5. Success Story

A young child who had a fracture was refused surgery in a Government hospital in Delhi because he was HIV positive. The child's family approached DNP with their problem. DNP advocated for the right of the child to health care and the child was finally operated in the hospital.

E) Education

1. Education - Government Schools

The schooling system is one of the main ways that the gap between the rich and the poor continues to grow in India. The poor can generally only access government schools which are Hindi medium, overcrowded and under-resourced. The middle class can send their children to English-medium private schools, where the class sizes are smaller and teaching is better. From there, those students often go to college, whereas few government-school educated students do so. The measures below aim to improve the quality of education for the poor.

G) Village Facilities

1. Village Facilities – Toilets

The Indian government wants to see every household have its on toilet by 2022. There is resistance to this from many villagers, however, who have toileted outdoors for generations and argue that toilets without running water and proper cleaning tend not to be used.

3. Village facilities - Housing

The Indira Awas Scheme aims to give a basic house to Below Poverty Line (BPL) families. Like all schemes aimed at the BPL, it is only as good as the BPL list itself, which sadly is not a good reflection of the genuinely poor, since the powerful often get on the list, while the poor and vulnerable are often left out.

2. Entitlement (Best Source: Indira Awas Yojana here)

- Indira Awaas Yojana (see pages 5 of 2013 Guidelines here)
  - Housing is available for BPL households with dilapidated & 'kutcha' housing.
  - The house should be 'pacca' and last for at least 30 years and be minimum 20 square metres
  - The house should include a toilet, soak pit, compost pit and smokeless 'chulha'.

IAY assistance allocated in the following priority:- (see pages 5 of 2013 Guidelines here)

- Manual scavengers, including those rehabilitated and
- Rehabilitated bonded labourers.
- Women in difficult circumstances, including widows, those divorced or deserted, women victims of atrocities and those whose husbands are missing for at least three years, and, women headed families.
- Households with a single girl child.
- Mentally & physically challenged persons (with at least 40% disability)
- Transgender persons
- Widows and next-of-kin of members of defence/paramilitary/police forces killed in action (even if not BPL);
- Households where a member is suffering from Leprosy or Cancer.
- People living with HIV (PLHIV)
- Other houseless BPL families

Extent of assistance (see pages 45 of 2013 Guidelines here)

- Rs70,000 (or Rs75,000 in hilly area) for construction of new house
- Rs15,000 for upgradation of kaccha house to pacca house.

3. Application Procedure (Chance of success 30%. Time frame 2 years)

- Using participatory process a 5 yr priority list of people who need to be given housing prepared using the Socio-Economic Caste Census SECC baseline data. (See pages 14 & 15 of 2013 Guidelines here);
- The Gram Sabha meets to approve the annual select list (meeting attended by District Collector and videoed);
- List of new inclusions and list of exclusions if any shall be marked as such with reasons;
- The Gram Sabha meetings should be completed by 30th November;

4. Village facilities – Land for the landless

Through generations of caste based discrimination, corruption, deceit & debt, many families have become landless. This consigns them to a life of renting accommodation & manual labour on other people's land. The ambitious "Homestead Site" scheme below, under the Indira Awas Yojana, aims to give destitute people some land, even if only enough for a house. As with all other BPL based schemes, it is only as good as the BPL list itself.

2. Entitlement (Best Source: Indira Awas Yojana http://iay.nic.in/netiay/more\_home.htm)

- Rural BPL households who have neither agricultural land nor a housesite,
- Beneficiaries will be selected only from the Permanent IAY Waitlists as per their priority in the list.
- The State Government will regularise the land as a homestead site if it is presently occupied by a BPL household and if regularisation is permissible as per the existing acts and rules. If this is not the case, State Government will allot suitable Government land as homestead site to the eligible BPL household. The Government land includes community land (gocher etc.), land belonging to panchayats or other local authorities. In case suitable Government land is not available for allotment as homestead sites, private land may be purchased or acquired for this purpose.
- Financial assistance of Rs. 20,000 per beneficiary or actual, whichever is less, will be provided for purchase/acquisition of a homestead site of an area around 10 cents (400 squares metres). The land is required to be either in the name of the woman or jointly owned by the wife and the husband (in that order). see pages 7 & 45 of 2013 Guidelines here

  - Above rates are maximums. If actuarial rate is less than above rate, then only it will be charged.
- Small and marginal farmers are provided subsidy of 10% of premium.

3. Application Procedure (Chance of success 40%. Time frame 6 months)

- At the beginning of each crop season, the State Govt notifies the crops and defines the areas which will be covered under the scheme during the season.
- The non-loanee farmer who desires to join the scheme fills up proposal form of NAIS and submits the same along with premium in the village branch of commercial bank or Regional Rural Bank or PACS of Cooperative Bank.
- It is the responsibility of the branch/PACS to verify the particulars of sum insured, the maximum limit etc., while accepting the proposal.

4. Advocacy (if application doesn't succeed)

3. Farming – Subsidies

With a population of over a billion, India desperately needs her farmers to keep producing a steady supply of food. With globalisation however, prices for basic farming seeds and equipment have gone up. The schemes below aim to subsidise these basic items to make farming a little more profitable and so encourage farmers to keep farming!

I) Human Rights Abuse

1. Human Rights Abuse - Domestic Violence

While improving, the position of women in India is still very poor. Even in their own homes, many women are regularly beaten by their husbands. This behaviour is unacceptable in the eyes of society and the government. This is reflected in the new Domestic Violence Act of 2005. EHA has now produced a whole manual on accessing schemes for Women. See the EHA website www.eha-health.org 'Advocacy manuals' 'All India' 'Women's Rights'.

Freedom for women from domestic violence (See Domestic Violence Act 2005 here) which includes:-

- Actual abuse or the threat of abuse.
- Abuse could be whether physical, sexual, verbal, emotional or economic.
- Harassment by way of unlawful dowry demands to the woman or her relatives would also be covered.

3. Application Procedure (Chance of success 40%. Time frame 6 months)

- i. Talk to Gram Panchayat to see if they can solve the problem locally; or
- ii. Abused woman lodges an FIR at the local Police Station after which police arrange for medical examination/certificate & will investigate the abuse; for nearest police station click here or

2. Human Rights Abuse - Child Labour

Many people treat children, especially girls, as commodities to be bought and sold. Every day we see children working in chai shops, dhabas and even in our own homes as maids. Such labour robs children of their childhood & is now illegal.

3. Human Rights Abuse - Trafficking

The United Nations defines 'trafficking' as "any activity leading to recruitment, transportation, harbouring or receipt of persons, by means of threat or use of force or a position of vulnerability".

Many children are given or sold by a family member, believing the child will get work or study. Often these children however, are then denied contact with their families and mistreated. Many end up in forced labour and even prostitution. The life for a young girl, torn from her family, trafficked into prostitution and then raped multiple times a day for years is horrific, yet it happens to thousands of girls in our own country every year. The only way to stop it is for ordinary people, like you and I to act if we see anything suspicious. Any missing child, even if they left with a relative should be reported to the police. Anyone can report suspicious activity or any concern to the police or Childline.

K) Appendices

1. Appendix - Advocacy in a 10 Step Empowerment Process

1. Build deep relationships with residents in the community

The key to any lasting change in a poor community is the residents themselves. Often however, after generations of poverty and being ignored by the powerful, residents are quite disempowered so much so that they passively accept their situations. Vitally important to a community being able to identify and solve its own problems then is for a small group of residents to develop the knowledge, skills and 'heart' (courage, self confidence and selflessness) to become change agents within their community. We believe the best way to help key residents to develop this knowledge, skills and 'heart' is by our own staff forming strong mutual, caring relationships with several key community members. Hence from the very beginning of the problem solving process our staff are looking to form good relationships with key residents. In choosing with whom to make the relationships, we deliberately look for key people with the right 'heart' who can potentially take the community forward in their development journey after our NGO's staff leave. An added advantage to forming good relationships with residents is that we will tend to get the 'real' story on the community when we do our research on the community in Step 2.

2. Learn about the community - Observe & enquire

It's important to start the problem solving process by being learners ourselves rather than coming in as experts. One of the best ways to learn about the community is to simply walk around and observe ourselves the situation with respect to housing, power, sanitation, water, community relations, marginalised groups etc. Some things about the colony however, we can't observe, such as the history of the colony, what residents appreciate about their colony and what they perceive to be their priority problems. For these, more hidden aspects, we need to ask questions, especially of those with whom we are developing close and mutual relationships (from Step 1 above.)

3. Analyse the problems yourself and with your colleagues

In order for our NGO's staff themselves to have a sense of the most pressing problems we, as a team, analyse what we've learnt from Step 2. This analysis may also reveal which problems affect most residents, which problems may create opposition etc, so revealing which problems will have the best chance of being resolved successfully. This analysis is not so as to impose those findings on the community, but rather to have thought about these issues before running the community meeting, to decide on which problem to tackle first (step 4). Part of this analysis can be a 'power analysis' to find which stakeholders have most power to bring a solution to a possible problem & whether those stakeholders are likely to be positively disposed to that solution or not.

4. Hold community meetings to prioritise the problems

While our NGO's team has done its own analysis in Step 3, it's vital for the final decision as to which problem is tackled first, to actually be taken by the residents themselves. This is done in a community meeting attended by representatives of as many groups of residents as possible; women, children, Muslims, Hindus, the disadvantaged and so on. This is one of the most difficult steps in the entire process, as running a successful community meeting with many different groups and different opinions is very difficult. The facilitator will attempt to hear all parties, quieten the loudest voices and ultimately build consensus among the residents as to which problem to tackle first.

5. Become an expert in the resources that could solve the problems

After the community has decided which problem to tackle first, our NGO team can use this Manual, its wider networks, internet research, RTI (Right To Information) applications and so forth to gather relevant information on resources available to the community that may be used to resolve the problem. These resources may be found in the government (in this Manual), among other NGOs, or indeed within the community itself. Again, this research is not done so as to impose those resources on the community, but rather to have options to put to the community in the next community meeting when developing a Plan of Action (Step 6).

6. Plan action to solve the problem

Another community meeting is held to make a plan of action to solve the priority problem decided in Step 4. The plan needs to specify who will do what, when it will be done and who will pay for any expenses. While our NGO's staff may be a part of the action plan, it's vital that our NGO's staff not take too much responsibility. If residents aren't willing to get involved, then it indicates a lack of commitment to the process and our NGO's staff need to wait until there is sufficient commitment before moving on. This planning phase may also be a good point at which to introduce God as a willing aid in the problem solving process. In the multi-faith context of India, most people will readily agree to call on God within their own tradition to help solve community problems.

7. Take the action agreed

Residents who have agreed to take steps in the Action Plan (from Step 6) then proceed to do so. Often these steps involve advocating with government officers to implement existing government services which should be available to residents. Usually this will involve using the Application Procedure outlined in this Manual.

8. Reflect on the action taken

If, after carrying out the plan of action, residents have succeeded in solving the problem, then it's important to celebrate the success! If we haven't succeeded, then we need to make a new plan probably using the Advocacy Steps outlined in this Manual and using our learnings from step 7.

Then cycle through steps 6-8 until the problem is solved or becomes unresolvable.

9. Do it all again with less involvement from the our NGO & more from the residents

After the resolution of the first problem we return to Step 4 and choose the next community problem to tackle. In doing so our NGO's staff take less responsibility, while encouraging residents to take more responsibility. In this way, gradually the residents, especially the 'good-hearted' people learn the whole problem solving process well enough that they can eventually do it without the help of our NGO's staff.

10. Form a CBO

The 'good hearted' people identified in Step 1 and mentored through the entire problem solving process, will eventually form an independent CBO (Community Based Organisation), that will carry on facilitating the community's development after our NGO's staff leave. That group may, after some time, wish to register as a formal Community Welfare Association, so as to give it more authority in dealing with the government as well as more accountability.

3. Appendix- Writing Effective Applications (with example)

In your letter of application be sure to include the following:-

1. A clear statement of your problem. For example There has never been a sealed road to your village which makes travelling to your village in monsoon very difficult. A photo of the problem (e.g. a muddy road) will make the letter even better.
2. The right you to this scheme and the relevant law (see 'Best Source' next to Entitlement on the relevant page). For example under Pradhan Mantri Gram Sarak Yojna the government has promised a paved road to all villages of more than 1,000 population.
3. Your request that is specific and clear. What do you want by when? For example you want village to be connected to a paved road paved by 30 June 2016.
4. Next Steps: If you don't get this action what you will do. For example if you don't get the paved road by 30th June 2016, you'll lodge an RTI.

NB Copy your application to the state government office responsible for this scheme, so the local officer is more likely to respond to you.

Thus an example letter might look like this:-

Re: Paved road under Pradhan Mantri Gram Sarak Yojana

Dear sir,

I live in Sivarampur village in District Almora, Uttar akhand. It has a populations of 2,350. I respectfully state the following:-

1. The road to my village has never been paved. Hence travelling to my village is difficult, especially in monsoon.
2. I note from the Pradhan Mantri Gram Sarak Yojana website <http://pmgsy.nic.in/pmg61.asp> that the Government of India has promised all villages of more than 1,000 population to be connected by an all weather roads.
3. Since my village has 1,500 residents, I would therefore like to apply for a paved roads to my village. I would like this road to be made by 30 June 2016.
4. If this is not done, I will lodge an application under the RTI Act 2005 to know what has happened with this application.

Kind regards,
Ramesh Kumar

4. Appendix - Tips on effectively lodging of applications

A. Preparation for the meeting

- Take someone from the community.
- Have the purpose of the visit clearly in mind.
- Get an appointment if possible.
- Dress formally.
- Take your I card & visiting cards if you have them.
- Have your diary, paper & pen.
- Take 2 copies of any letter or document you want to present.
- Take the originals of any copies you may need to give.
- Know where the office is.
- Have enough money for auto (if getting late).
- Get there on time.
- Know the rules & policies (including this officer's superiors name) well before you go in.
- Decide what pressure you're prepared to apply BEFORE you go in, if he/she is unreasonable.
- Decide who will speak.

B. During the meeting

- Introduce yourself and if appropriate check their name, designation and phone number.
- Clearly state your purpose for coming (may involve giving the letter - if so get a received stamp)
- Stay calm! If there's an argument or raised voices you will lose!
- Repeat whatever they say to you (whether negative or positive) (Often when the officer hears his unreasonable response repeating he softens it.)
- If you can't get him/her to 'receive' your application, then at least fix any future date in your diary. Remember 'later' means never, so never accept later.
- Clearly state whatever follow up you intend to make.
- Thank him/her

C. Debrief the meeting

- If you went with someone from the community then debrief the meeting by asking: -
"How was that meeting for you?"

D. Record the meeting

Write down:-

- Date & time of meeting
- Who you met with
- Result of the meeting (attach extra sheet if necessary)
- Any expense
- Attach the received copy of any letter given

Put any follow up on appropriate date in your diary.

E. Follow up on the meeting

- Do whatever you said to the officer you'd do.
- If it was a promise for some action of the officer's side, check with him/her that it will happen as the date approaches.
- Once a positive result has been achieved, make sure to thank them with phone call.

5. Appendix - Dealing with Corruption

How does corruption work?

Many times a government officer will not accept or process your application or simply delay working on it until s/he receives a bribe. Usually these requests are unspoken or will have code words like 'chai pani' or 'kuchch de do' (give something). Sometimes, rather than taking bribes directly from the public, middlemen (dalals) take 'service fees' from the public to get some government work done, a proportion of which they then pay as a bribe to the official to get the work done. For example to get a birth certificate made for a child over a year old might cost Rs700. Like everything else in a capitalist economy, there is a supply and demand, so the more desperate the demand for the ration card or certificate, the more the bribe is likely to be. Of course there will not be any receipt issues for any such payments, making it hard to prove the bribery. If accused the official will simply deny that he/she ever received anything. Such bribes can amount to huge amounts of money, such that many government officers have to pay huge bribes themselves to be awarded posts in which the potential for bribe collection is large. Many people are desperate enough to get their work done - ration card or birth certificate made that they pay such fees and commissions. This is understandable given their often years of fruitless efforts. However there are many difficulties with such a system.

What are the problems with the system?

- The more people pay bribes the more it becomes entrenched in the system.
- Corruption effectively excludes the poor, who can't afford the bribes, from accessing the very services that were designed to benefit them. Hence many widows aren't getting pensions and many impoverished families don't have a BPL ration card, simply because they can't afford the bribe!
- Otherwise honest, hard-working government officers, are corrupted by the system.
- The bribes slow down systems that could & should work much more efficiently.

What can we do when faced with a request for a bribe?

a) Before the interaction.

- Know your rights, applicable fees etc (perhaps using this Manual) so you can't be duped.
- Where possible, lodge application on the web or by post to avoid possible bribe requests.
- For written applications, use the format in Appendix 3 (page 52), so officer knows you're serious.
- Go with another person, so that there's a witness to any request for bribe.

b) During the interaction. If an officer asks you for 'chai pani' or 'kuch de do' then:-

- Ask him/her to show you where the fee is written down (to highlight its illegality).
- Say you'll happily pay the fee if he gives you a receipt (also to highlight its illegality).
- Repeat his/her request loudly, so that others in the vicinity hear and s/he gets embarrassed.
- If he/she persists, make a show of noting the details of the interaction in a way that the officer knows you're doing it. Note the day, time, place & exact request. Note the officer's name & designation. If s/he refuses to give this, then note down any feature that might identify him/her like a name badge, which desk s/he's sitting at or any physical features.

c) After the interaction. Decide whether this is an important enough issue to take further action over. If so:-

- Type out concisely the details of what happened; Date, place, time, officer, exact request etc.
- Find the name of the bribe taking officer's superior, (from others, websites or this Manual).
- Present your written complaint to the superior officer (or to any other complaint body listed in the 'Advocacy' section of each service in this Manual).
- When making the complaint, get a 'received' stamp. Include a request that s/he notify you if what action s/he takes. Also include the threat that if you don't hear anything within 2 weeks, you'll lodge an RTI to find out what happened. Then actually do whatever you threaten to do.
- If still nothing happens, phone CBI anti-corruption number 9968 081216,7,8.
- If still nothing happens, contact an NGO working in this field or go to the media (see Appendix 7 on page 57).

6. Appendix - Notes on effective use of the RTI (with example)

1. When is the RTI useful?

a) Personal problems (eg Pension application not processed)

- Once you've applied for some government benefit (using the 'Application Procedure' in this Manual); and
- The normal period has expired; and
- Reasonable enquiries haven't worked.

b) Community problems (eg Garbage not collected)

- When a public service that should have been done hasn't been.

2. How to write an RTI

a) Necessary information

- PIO's, Department and address;
- Date;
- Mention of "The Right to Information Act 2005";
- The information requested (see below and example following);
- Fee Rs10 (remember to get the receipt) (for BPL R Card holders no Fee, attach a copy of R card);
- Your signature (of the applicant);
- Your name; address; and telephone number.

b) How to ask questions (see example below)

- State the date of your original application and attach a copy.*
- Ask the time that it should take to process an application according to their rules.*
- Ask what action has been taken by which officers (with name) on which dates since you applied.*
- Ask what punishment has been or will be given to the officers responsible for the delay.*
- Ask when your application will be processed.*

3. To Whom / Where to lodge your RTI

a) The RTI request should be sent to the Public Information Officer (PIO) of the concerned Government department. For lists of PIOs try:-

- <http://righttoinformation.info/rti-guide/>
- www.rti.gov.in

b) If that turns out NOT to be the correct government department, it's the PIO's responsibility to send the RTI to the correct department. The reply should still come w/i 30 days from the original RTI lodgement. If you're concerned you'll be troubled by the government department you're asking, you can post the RTI. Use registered or SpeedPost, so you have a record. For the RTI fee, use Postal Order with Payee line blank.

4. Possible Results and actions

There are 5 possible results & corresponding actions to your RTI as seen in the table:-

Result	Action
1. NO response but work done	None
2. Correct information	None
3. No info or unrelated info	Complain to Central Information Commission (CIC) here
4. Incomplete information (90% cases)	Complain to CIC here ; or Lodge 1st Appeal
5. Not allowed to lodge RTI	Complain to CIC (within 90 days): Club Bldg, Old JNU Campus (near Munirka), Delhi 110067

If you win the appeal then PIO can be fined Rs250 per day up to maximum of Rs20,000.

For information regarding application for birth certificate of Nazma Khatoum

Sir,

- i. I made an application for a birth certificate for my daughter Nazma Khatoum (DOB 2nd Oct 2004) at the NE (Shahdara) UP SDM office on 3rd November 2015. A copy of that application is attached. No satisfactory action has been taken on my application so far. Therefore kindly provide the following information:-
- ii. According to the rules and regulations of your department, what is the stipulated time within which a birth certificate should be issued?
- iii. Please provide the daily progress made on my application. Please give the names and designations of the officials with whom my application was lying during this period. Please intimate the periods when it was lying with which officer and what was the action taken by that official during that period.
- iv. What actions will be taken against such officer/employee who did not perform their duties on time and caused this delay? When will this action be taken?
- v. When will I receive my daughter's birth certificate?

I am depositing the application fee (Rs10) separately for this RTI.

If you feel that the above requested information does not pertain to your department, then please follow the provisions of section 6(3) of the RTI Act 2005. Also as per the provisions of the RTI Act, 2005, please provide the details (name and designation) of the first appellate authority with respect to your department with the reply to the above request, where I may, if required, file my first appeal.

Thank you.

7. Appendix – Notes on the effective use of the Media

1. When is using the media useful in advocacy?

- In promoting an issue involving social change;
- In creating public opinion/awareness and educating the public;
- In influencing policy and decision makers/legislators;
- In publicising local/community/state level public action and other social issue events.

2. Developing the message to the media involves:

- Establishing the overall goal (eg. Advocating for a law, advertising an event, creating social awareness, etc.)
- Planning the message and determining the target audience;
- Some key questions in determining the strategy:
  - o What is the social concern to be highlighted?
  - o Is there a determinable solution to it?
  - o Which public/private body/authority can make the solution possible?
  - o Determine the mode in which the attention of those who can make the solution possible can be gained?
- Designing the message to be – clear, concise, simple, powerful and compelling; It should target the intended audience.

3. Contacting the Media

- Identify reporters who cover the issue you are addressing by asking around or reading the papers yourself;
- Depending on the issue, contact local/national media – print and/or broadcast;
- Create a media list with names and contact details (postal address/phone numbers/email addresses and fax)of reporters/channels/dailies/bureau chiefs; &
- Be cordial and create a good working relationship with the media.

4. Ways of using the media in advocacy

- News release;
- Letter to the editor;
- Op-ed;
- Media workshop (to sensitise the media on a particular social concern);
- Personal/panel interviews;
- Press conference.

Once the message is carried in the media, actual clippings (where it is in print) or copies of the broadcast interview, discussion, etc. may be taken, which can then be used in reference for further advocacy on the issue.
